

Outlaw Camp Bulletin

October 14, 2019

Another “Mayhem on the Mountain” in the books! I want to personally thank everyone who helped make it a great shoot! We had the scores up on the internet Sunday night.

Congratulations to the overall winners, T-Bone Dooley and Fired-Up Fannie Sue. Black Powder Champs were Rowdy Bob and Mustang Toni. (Yes, I know there are no overall winners in a Black Powder shoot) but we do things a little differently sometimes here at Outlaw Camp.

Some of the most fun was had by the three who shot Frontier Cartridge Outlaw, Chickalah Slim, Outrider and Stumpman, a lot of misses but they sure put some smoke in the air and a lot of smiles on peoples faces. We also had occasion to give a special award this year to the shooter with the most squibs in the match a total of six, I think. Recipient of this award was Rio Concho Kid (now known at Outlaw Camp as “Squib Rod”) Who else do you know is so lucky as to be shooting a stage where the rifle is the first firearm to be shot and the first round is a squib three times in a row? I don’t know where the other three came in but it obviously didn’t cost him much. We recommended more powder! We also had a side match which involved splitting a bullet on an axe blade at about seven yards with your pistol. You had two attempts to do so to be awarded a pin indicating you had done so. Following several failed attempts to split the bullet, I called my grandson Ben up to give it a try. (He was not shooting the match) First shot and he did it! The only other shooter to successfully do it was Dirt Dart on his second shot. We will do this again next year only maybe a little closer! Stumpman supervised the Gatling gun Turkey shoot again, the winner received a new revolver.

There are more fun stories, as there usually are where shooters gather to have fun, but these were just a few. The weather was a little cool and damp when side matches started on Friday but by early afternoon the drizzle stopped and participation picked up ending with our Man On Man, Woman on Woman match prior to our Friday night Social and Potluck. Saturday was a little cool early but a welcome relief from the heat we had experienced a couple of weeks before. Sunday was picture perfect!

Our photographer, Mark Williams, did an outstanding job with posse pictures and action shots. These may be seen and or purchased at <http://www.markwil.com/photography> his e-mail is mawbaron@yahoo.com Give them a look!

There are still a lot of shoots around, but things are winding down, and plans are being made for next year’s shooting schedule. Dates for “Mayhem on the Mountain” will once again be the second weekend in October, that’s October 9-11 so get it on your calendar. Counting a fifth Saturday in November, there are only six more shoots at Outlaw Camp this year!

The next big shoot in Arkansas will be “Hell on the Border” hosted by Judge Parker’s Marshals in Fort Smith, Arkansas 3-19 thru 3-20 2020 so get your entry in. If you plan on camping at Springhill campground on the river, you probably need to get a reservation made through Recreation.Gov. Campsites may be reserved at this time.

Like I said things are winding down, Halloween is just around the corner then Thanksgiving and Christmas before we welcome in 2020, so until then, remember nothing bad happens if you just.....
