

Outlaw Camp Bulletin

December 9, 2017

Our Fourth Saturday shoot in November turned out to be a really nice day, the weather was about perfect. Chickalah Slim had some interesting stages written for us and Arnetta had a hot lunch prepared for us.

Our final Second Saturday shoot and Year End party was held today. Cajun Bandit proved that all those years of cooking Gumbo at LSU tailgate parties truly made him a master. A big thanks to Cajun Bandit for cooking the Gumbo and to all who contributed salad, desserts, etc. to make this event a success. Thanks to K&T Guns for door prizes. After the door prizes had been drawn for, Mustang Toni got a call from Santa asking that she deliver a message to Roy Sackett informing him that a special present was waiting for him to pick up at K&T Guns mobile store. It seems that Cherokee Gal had grown tired of sharing her shotgun so Santa and K&T Guns came to the rescue. Stumpman was recognized as having been inducted into the Jedi Gunfighter Society.

Unfortunately, Cajun Bandit had an out of battery detonation while trying to clear a squib load on the last stage, resulting in a hand injury which necessitated a trip to the emergency room. They got him stitched up and hopefully no permanent damage has been done to his hand. He cooked all that great Gumbo and wasn't even there to enjoy it.

We are fortunate to have members who are willing to help on workdays when called upon, but this year special recognition was given to Arkansas Harper and Arkansas Bell, Pepper Pete and Ouachita Badman and family for special contributions and work. We also have a special thanks to Arnetta for seeing that we have a lunch available on shootdays and to Better Half for taking care of our posse assignments and ACES scoring. Also, Ozark Red for keeping me lined out, (sort of).

We are saying goodbye to Mace Bishop and Daff E. Dill as they are moving to Texas; they will be missed, hardly a workday was called which they did not attend. I feel sure we will see them down the road as they will be very close to the Bar Three range in English, Texas. We wish them only the best.

Lists of the 2017 winners at Outlaw Camp are attached.

The stages have been written for our Fun Fifth Saturday shoot coming up on December 30 and it should be "fun". Christmas will be past and 2018 will almost be here, just a good time to relax and say a final farewell to the 2017 shooting season. I hope everyone can attend and hang around to visit awhile. This will be the final shoot at Outlaw Camp for 2017.

The new year is coming up and it is time to pay dues once again. Missouri Plowboy is once again the first to get his dues in. Dues remain $45.00 per year for both shooting groups 2nd and 4th Saturday. Or $25.00 if you wish to only shoot on 2nd or 4th Saturdays. Both groups are welcome on our fifth Saturday shoots. Shoot fees remain $10.00 dollars for members and $15.00 for non-members. We encourage you to join both groups.

SASS has finally composed a new Shooters Handbook which is supposed to include everything you need to know about Cowboy Action Shooting. It replaces the old Shooters Handbook as well as including the information in the RO1 and RO2 manuals. You can download it from the SASS website and I encourage you to do so.

Well the Holidays are here so let me take this opportunity for Red and I to wish you and yours a very Happy and Safe Holiday Season. In the meantime.....
